

PRIVACY POLICY

www.dbfsindia.com, herein referred to as DBFS, is committed to safeguarding your privacy online. Please read the following policy to understand how your personal information will be treated while you make full use of our many offerings. The policy may change from time to time, so kindly check periodically.

Personal Information

During registration, DBFS asks for your name and email address. Once you register, you are no longer anonymous to DBFS, and you are able to take full advantage of DBFS offerings. Wherever DBFS collects personal information, we make an effort to include a link to this privacy policy on that page.

Use of Personal Information

The primary goal of DBFS, in collecting personal information, is to provide you, the user, with a customized experience on our network of sites. This includes personalization services, interactive communications, and many other types of services, most of which come completely free to you. In order to provide services free of charge, we display advertisements. By knowing a little more about you, DBFS is able to deliver more relevant advertisements, content, and hence better service to you.

Collection of Information by DBFS

When you are on a DBFS site and are asked for personal information, you are sharing that information with DBFS alone, unless it is specifically stated otherwise. If data is being collected and/or maintained by any company other than DBFS, you will be notified prior to the time of the data collection or transfer. Please be aware that DBFS advertisers or websites that have links on our site may collect personally identifiable information about you. This privacy statement does not cover the information practices of those web sites linked to DBFS. We endeavor to collect only the minimum amount of information needed to provide services. We only use the information in our web server logs to improve the content of our web services and to help us understand how people are using our pages.

This information may include the following:

- The internet domain and IP address from which you access our site.
- The type of browser and operating system you use.
- The date and time of your visit to this site.
- The pages visited; and
- If you linked another website, the address of that website.

We analyze our website logs to continually improve the value of the materials available on our site. The information in our web logs is not personally viewable, and no attempt is made to link it with the individuals who browse our website.–

PRIVACY POLICY

Distribution of Information

DBFS may, from time to time, send you emails regarding our products and services. In addition, if you indicate upon registration that you are interested in receiving offers or information from DBFS and its partners, DBFS may occasionally send you direct mail about products and services that it feels may be of interest to you. Only DBFS or agents working on behalf of DBFS and under confidentiality agreements will send you these direct mailings, and only if you indicate that you do not object to these offers. If you do not want to receive such mailings, simply tell DBFS when you give your personal information, or, at any time, you can easily edit your DBFS account information to no longer receive such offers and mailings.

Updating of Personal Information

You may edit your DBFS account information and your DBFS profile by sending a request to itsupport@dbfsindia.com. Your DBFS account can be deleted or deactivated, but doing so will result in not being able to access any members-only area of the DBFS network, including your account (if you have one). Residual information will remain within our archive records.

Protection of Information

As with all information, DBFS will never rent or sell your personal, financial, or other information, including information kept in your DBFS portfolio. Any user statistics that we may provide to prospective advertisers or partners regarding financial, product, or service usage on DBFS are provided in aggregate form only and do not include any personally identifiable information about any individual user. Please remember to sign out of your DBFS account and close your browser window when you have finished your work. This is to ensure that others cannot access your personal information and correspondence if you share a computer with someone else or are using a computer in a public place. Whenever DBFS handles personal information as described above, regardless of where this occurs, DBFS takes steps to ensure that your information is treated securely and in accordance with the relevant Terms of Service and this Privacy Policy. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while DBFS Ltd. strives to protect your personal information, DBFS cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to it, and you do so at your own risk. Once DBFS receives your transmission, it makes the best efforts to ensure its security on its systems. Please keep in mind that whenever you voluntarily disclose personal information online, for example, on message boards or through email, that information can be collected and used by others. In short, if you post personal information online that is accessible to the public, you may receive unsolicited messages from other parties in return.
